INGREDIENTS

PATTIES

- 1 tin black beans, drained and rinsed
- 1/2 red onion, finely diced
- 3 cloves garlic, minced
- 1/2 red pepper, finely diced
- 4 tbsp breadcrumbs
- 1 tsp smoked paprika
- 1 tsp ground cumin
- 1/2 tsp ground coriander
- 1 tsp chipotle paste (or pinch of chilli flakes)
- 1 tsp white miso paste
- 1 tbsp soy sauce
- 3 tbsp fresh coriander, roughly chopped
- 1/2 lime, juiced
- 1 tbsp olive oil

MUSHROOMS

- 4 large Portobello mushrooms
- 2 cloves garlic, minced
- 1 tbsp soy sauce
- 1 tbsp olive oil

TO ASSEMBLE

- 2 burger buns

METHOD

1. SOFTEN THE VEG

Heat a little oil in a frying pan over medium heat. Sauté the red onion and red pepper for 5–6 minutes until softened. Add the garlic and cook for another minute. Set aside to cool slightly.

2. MASH THE BEANS

Tip the black beans into a large bowl. Mash roughly two-thirds of them with a fork or potato masher, leaving the rest whole for texture.

3. MIX THE PATTY MIXTURE

Add the softened veg to the beans along with the breadcrumbs, smoked paprika, cumin, ground coriander, chipotle paste, miso, soy sauce, fresh coriander, and lime juice. Mix well until combined. The mixture should hold its shape when pressed — if it feels too wet, add another tablespoon of breadcrumbs.

4. SHAPE AND CHILL

Divide the mixture into 4–5 patties, pressing firmly to compact them. Place on a plate, cover, and refrigerate for at least 20–30 minutes. This is important for helping them hold together during cooking.

5. PREP THE MUSHROOMS

Mix the minced garlic, soy sauce, and olive oil together. Brush over both sides of the mushrooms. Set aside until ready to cook.

6. AIR FRY THE PATTIES

Preheat your air fryer to 190°C. Brush both sides of the patties lightly with olive oil. Cook for 12–15 minutes, flipping carefully halfway through, until golden and firm on the outside.

7. AIR FRY THE MUSHROOMS

While the patties rest, cook the mushrooms at 190°C for 8–10 minutes, gill-side up for the first half, until tender and slightly caramelised.

8. ASSEMBLE AND SERVE

Toast your buns lightly. Layer with a patty, a Portobello mushroom, and any toppings you like — smashed avocado, sliced tomato, or shredded lettuce all work well.

NOTES

Leftover patties keep well in the fridge for 3 days and reheat in the air fryer at 180°C for 5–6 minutes. To freeze, shape the patties and freeze on a tray before cooking, then bag up once solid — they'll keep for up to 3 months.
